COMPLAINT FOR BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY, CONVERSION,
FRAUD, AND NEGLIGENCE

19 As and for her Complaint against Defendants GSO Business Management, LLC
20 ("GSO"), Jonathan Schwartz ("Schwartz"), and Does 1 through 25, inclusive, Plaintiff Alanis
21 Morissette ("Morissette") alleges as follows:

23 INTRODUCTION

24 1. Plaintiff Alanis Morissette retained Defendants as her business manager to 25 safeguard her assets and protect her finances. She has recently learned, however, that 26 over the course of four years, Defendants violated her trust by distributing to themselves at 27 least $4.7 million in cash from Morissette's accounts. Defendants concealed these 28 distributions from Morissette, convincing her that she was in tremendous financial shape

1 when, in fact, they were draining her assets and leading her on a road that could have led 2 to financial ruin.

3 2. When Morissette's new business manager discovered the cash distributions
4 and tried to find out from Defendants why the distributions were made, the cover up began.
5 Defendants concocted conflicting, preposterous, and out and out false stories blaming
6 Morissette for cash distributions she knew nothing about and of which she received no part.

7 3. These and Defendants' other acts of misfeasance and malfeasance have 8 caused substantial damage to Morissette well in excess of $15,000,000.

9
10 THE PARTIES

11 4. Morissette is an individual residing in the County of Los Angeles, State of 12 California.

13 5. Morissette is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that GSO is a 14 limited liability company organized under the laws of the State of California with its principal 15 place of business in Los Angeles, California.

16 6. Morissette is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Schwartz is an 17 individual residing in Los Angeles County, California. Morissette is further informed and 18 believes, and thereon alleges, that Schwartz is an owner of GSO and a partner, manager
19 and/or officer of GSO.

20 7. Morissette is ignorant of the true names and capacities of Defendants Does 1 21 through 25 and therefore sue these Defendants by such fictitious names. Morissette will 22 amend this Complaint to allege these Defendants' true names and capacities when 23 ascertained. Upon information and belief, each of these Defendants is responsible in some 24 manner for the events alleged herein and damages caused thereby.

25 8. At all times relevant hereto and in doing all that is alleged herein, each 26 Defendant was an agent or employee of the other Defendants, acting within the scope of 27 such agency or employment, directing, ratifying, or condoning the acts or omissions of 28 these Defendants alleged herein, and with the knowledge of any Defendant attributable to

05/17/2016

1 all Defendants. Defendants conspired with each other in doing all that is alleged herein,
2 making the actions of any Defendant attributable to all Defendants.

3
4 GENERAL ALLEGATIONS

5 9. Defendants served as Morissette's business manager from in or around 2009
6 through March 2016. As Morissette's business manager, Defendants were responsible for 7 all financial and tax aspects of Morissette's career and income. For example, Defendants
8 were responsible for collecting income and compensation on behalf of Morissette, 9 maintaining and safeguarding her bank and investment accounts, providing accounts 10 payable services on her behalf, preparing short term and long term budgets, and managing 11 her investments.

12 10. In or around March 2016, Morissette fired Defendants as her business
13 manager. She did so for several reasons, including that Schwartz failed to timely respond 14 to requests for information on the status of her finances, failed to provide budget
15 information in a timely manner (if at all), among other things. At the time Morissette 16 terminated Defendants, she had no idea whatsoever, and no reason to believe, that 17 Schwartz had taken from her more than $4.7 million in cash or had caused her to spend 18 more than $8,000,000 that was supposed to remain in her investment accounts.

19 11. Morissette hired a new business manager, Howard Grossman of WG&S, LLP.
20 GSO transferred 26 boxes of files of Morissette's financial documents to Grossman.

21 12. In April 2016, in the process of reviewing Morissette's historical spending in 22 order to create a budget for Morissette, Grossman's office discovered that, buried within the 23 26 boxes of files, were records showing at least 116 separate cash transfers to Schwartz
24 from Morissette's funds during the four (4) year period from January 1, 2010 to January 31,
25 2014, totaling $4,767,900. Each of the transfers reflects large amounts of cash requested 26 by, and delivered to, Schwartz. Plaintiff continues to investigate and there may well be 27 more money that was stolen.
28

05/17/2016

1           13.    The boxes contained no receipts signed by Morissette for these transfers nor 2 were there receipts signed by any third party to whom these sums might have been 3 delivered. There were no documents explaining the nature of these transfers. Morissette 4 was completely unaware of these cash transfers and had not authorized them.

5           14.    Grossman contacted Schwartz to inquire about the cash transfers and to 6 determine if there were documents reflecting Morissette's approval of them. On April 14, 7 Schwartz told Grossman that these large cash transfers were "not a problem;" that 8 Morissette had signed a letter "acknowledging" each and every one of these withdrawals;
9 and that he had "signed receipts . . . in storage." Schwartz then backtracked, and said, in 10 essence, "if I don't have receipts for each cash transfer, I know that I have receipts for at 11 least seventy percent of them."

12           15.    Grossman asked Schwartz why there were such large cash withdrawals.
13 Schwartz replied that Morissette "spends a lot of cash so I get large amounts from the bank, 14 and keep the money in my safe so that when she needs cash, we don't need to go to the 15 bank each time." This statement was false. During the course of her representation by 16 Defendants, Morissette did not spend large amounts of cash and never received more than 17 a few hundred dollars in cash from Defendants at any given time.

18           16.    Later on April 14, Schwartz called Grossman and stated that he was working 19 on obtaining the signed receipts, and would have them to Mr. Grossman by the next 20 Monday, April 18.

21           17.    The documents did not arrive as promised on April 18. Rather, after 22 Grossman inquired as to where the documents were, Schwartz e-mailed Grossman, and 23 said he was "working to find the letter and putting together all supporting docs as per our 24 discussion." He promised to send the letter Morissette allegedly signed that same week, 25 and to send the receipts by the next Monday, April 25. As of April 25, Schwartz had not 26 sent the supposed letter or any other documents.

27           18.    By April 26, Schwartz had concocted a new story. For the first time, he began 28 to insist that the $4.7 million in cash was actually an "investment" by Morissette in one or

05/17/2016

1 more illegal marijuana "grow" businesses. Schwartz said that he (or others in the office)
2 had regularly delivered the cash to various people (none of which he could name or 3 identify). He said there were no receipts for the cash payments, and he couldn't identify 4 anybody in the office who had participated in the cash deliveries. He was unable to say
5 whether she had ever received any income from this supposed investment. Finally,
6 Schwartz insisted that Morissette had acknowledged the cash transactions by signing
7 "meeting packets" which he claimed GSO had online digitally, and which he promised to 8 provide.

9 19. In fact, none of what Schwartz said was true. To be clear:

- 10 • Morissette never considered investing in a marijuana grow business. She 11 never discussed with Schwartz investing in a marijuana grow business. She 12 never agreed to invest in a marijuana grow business. The accusation by 13 Schwartz is an out and out falsehood.
- 14 • Furthermore, the boxes delivered by Defendants contained no "meeting 15 packets" dated after 2008. Despite his promises, Schwartz has never 16 provided any subsequent meeting packets or any documents to support his 17 preposterous story.
- 18 • The limited reports provided by Defendants to Morissette during their business 19 relationship did not reveal the cash transactions, and neither Schwartz nor 20 anybody else at GSO informed Morissette about these transactions or about 21 this supposed "investment."
- 22 • The transactions were not characterized by Defendants on Morissette's books 23 as any kind of investment. All of the stolen funds were included as 24 "sundry/personal" expenses.

25 20. Defendants' misconduct is not, however, limited to this theft. They engaged in 26 a pattern of wrongful conduct in an apparent attempt to conceal the theft. For example, 27 when Morissette originally hired Schwartz, she explained to him and to others what was 28 referred to as the "Plan." Morissette's "Plan" was not to spend any of the monies that she

05/17/2016

1 had invested, but rather to live off of her current income and interest. She was clear with 2 Defendants that she would rather adjust her monthly/yearly spending than ever dip into her 3 investments.

4 21. Over the next years, Schwartz enthusiastically encouraged Morissette to 5 spend money, often telling his client to "go big." When she asked him if she was over 6 budget, he would insist that things were "fine," that she had "nothing to worry about," and 7 that she and her future grandkids were "set for life." At the same time, Schwartz kept 8 Morissette in the dark about her financial condition, despite numerous requests for 9 information on her financial condition.

10 22. As it turns out, however, Defendants allowed $8,000,000 to be transferred 11 from the investment accounts he promised Morissette would never be touched. This sum
12 presumably includes the $4.7 million that he stole, and additional monies that Morissette 13 spent (not having any way of knowing that her investment accounts had been invaded).
14 Defendants never told Morissette that she had dipped into her savings. To the contrary, 15 Defendants regularly assured Morissette that everything was fine and that the Plan was in 16 effect. Morissette is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, that Defendants made 17 these representations with the intent to induce Morissette to believe that she was in 18 fantastic financial shape, to pacify her into a false sense of financial security, and to ensure 19 that she would not be inclined to scrutinize the limited financial materials that Defendants 20 provided or to seek back-up that might reveal the theft.

21 23. Schwartz's deceit did not stop there. Over the years, Schwartz repeatedly 22 encouraged Morissette to turn down various offers to perform at concerts, including a 23 lucrative set of five shows in Las Vegas. His reasoning was always that she didn't need to 24 work so hard, because she was so financially secure. Morissette is informed and believes, 25 and thereon alleges, that Schwartz made these statements in order to induce Morissette to 26 believe that her financial position remained intact, and so that she wouldn't look more 27 closely into her finances.
28

05/17/2016

1 38. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' fraud, Morissette has been 2 damaged in an amount to be proven at trial, but which exceeds $15,000,000.

3 39. Morissette is informed and believes, and therefore alleges, that Defendants'
4 actions were undertaken with fraud, oppression, and malice. Punitive damages in an 5 amount according to proof should therefore be awarded against Defendants.

6
7 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

8 (For Negligence)

9 [Against All Defendants]

10 40. Morissette re-alleges and incorporates herein by reference each of the 11 allegations in paragraphs 1 through 24, above.

12 41. The above-described conduct of Defendants was below the standard of care 13 for a business management firm and this was negligent.

14 42. As a direct and proximate result of Defendants' negligent conduct, Morissette 15 suffered damages in an amount to be proven at trial, but in any event in excess of 16 $15,000,000.

17 WHEREFORE, Morissette prays for judgment as follows:

- 18 1. For damages in an amount in excess of $15,000,000, according to proof;
19 2. For punitive damages in an amount according to proof;
20 3. For such other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
